Proceedings of former meeting read, when

On motion of C. Keener,

The consideration of the valuation of the Jail property, was taken up for the purpose of fixing a value thereon, and after exchanging opinions the final determination of the valuation was deferred to a future meeting, for the purpose of affording some of the members of the committee an opportunity of making further enquiry relative to the value of the adjoining property.

On motion of J. Bernard.

The commissioners proceeded to consider and value the Court House and Record buildings; after some discussion thereon,

On motion of J. Bernard.
