

A STATEMENT

Of the amount of Compensation paid to Special Judges and Attorneys employed by the Governor for the argument of causes since the adoption of the new Constitution, with the name of the Judges and Attorneys, and the amount paid to each, and for what services rendered.

TO WHOM PAID AND FOR WHAT SERVICE.	Amount paid to At torneys.	Amount paid to spe- cial Judges.	Total.
To Robert J. Brent, for his services as counsel for the State of Maryland, on the trial of Castner Hanaway, indicted in the courts of Pennsylvania for conspiracy, paid under chapter 286 of 1852, - - - - -	$1,200 00		$1,200 00
To James Cooper, for his services as counsel for the State of Maryland, on the trial of Castner Hanaway, indicted by the courts of Pennsylvania for conspiracy, paid under chapter 286 of 1852, - - - - -	1,000 00		1,000 00
To Otho Scott and James M. Buchanan, commissioners to Pennsylvania in the matter of Archibald G. Ridgely, paid under chapter 330 of 1852, - - - - -	1,500 00		1,500 00
To Robert J. Brent, late attorney general, for services in the cases of the State against Milburn and Crain in the court of appeals, and for services in the case of John Lee, paid under chapter 121 of 1853, - - - - -	600 00		600 00
To James L. Martin, for services as counsel for the State of Maryland, in the trial of Theodore Loockerman, paid under chapter 354 of 1853, - - - - -	450 00		450 00