TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, February 11th, 1856.

To the Honorable William H. Travers,

Speaker of the House of Delegates.

Sir: In obedience to an order of the House of Delegates, passed on the 31st ult., requiring "the Comptroller of the Treasury, to furnish to this House, a statement of the debt due by the State and at what time or times the same will become payable, a statement showing the amount of the sinking fund, and the amount and rate of interest which it bears, the amount of stock owned by the State, in each of the several companies, incorporated within her limits, distinguishing between productive and unproductive stocks, the amount due the State upon bond or mortgage, by each of the incorporations in the State indebted to her, and the amount of money now in the Treasury;" I have the honor to submit the accompanying statements.

Very respectfully,

Your Obedient Servant,
WILLIAM H. PURNELL, Comptroller.
