

or Sentence had been affirmed could have had no Property to have paid the costs of the said Appeal accruing on the Prosecution of the same, nor to have paid to the Libellant her costs on the affirmance of the Committary Generals Decree or Sentence in case it had been affirmed, therefore It is further ordered by the Judges and Decrees by this Court that all the costs charges and expences that the Appellant & Appellee have been at in the Prosecution or Defence of this Appeal shall be taken and paid out of the Personal Estate whereof the said John Libb died seised & that the Clerk of this Court settle the said costs and expences all which Justice requireth
