

(3)
Lib<sup>o</sup> C

An Act for mainteining the Lord Proprietaries Title to the Lands of this Province

Be it Enacted By the Lord Proprietarie of this Province of and with the advice and approbation of the freemen of the same That no Subject of his Majesties the King of England or of any other foreigne Prince or State shall obtain procure or accept of any Land within this Province from any foreigne Prince or State or from any person whatsoever (the natives owners of the Land excepted) other then from the Lord Proprietarie or his heirs or some person claiming under him or them Neither shall he obtaine procure or accept of any Land within this Province from any Indian to his own or the use of any other then of the Lord Proprietarie or his heirs nor shall hold or possess any Land within this Province by Virtue of such Grant upon pain that every person offending to the contrary thereof shall forfeit and lose to the Lord Proprietarie and his heirs all such Lands so accepted or held without Grant of the Lord Proprietarie or under him This Act to Continue to end of the next Generall Assembly

An Act For Trade with the Indians

Whereas the Crowne of England (by right of first discovery) became Lord and Proprietor of this Province and other countries thereunto adjoining so that no Subject of his Majesties or any other foreigne Prince or State whatsoever might or could Lawfully come in to these parts to trade with the Indians there of without leave or licence from or under the said Crowne of England (according as his Majesties said right is practised allowed and acknowledged in all other parts so according to the said Crown by right of discovery)

And Whereas His Majestie being so possessed by his Letters Patents to the Right Honourable Cecilus Lord Baltimore Granted and confirmed unto the said Cecilus all this Province with all rights