

(64)
Lib C

All Inhabitants of this Province shall take an Oath of Allegiance to his Majesty.

The Lord Proprietorie shall have all his rights and prerogatives.

The Inhabitants of this Province shall have all their rights and liberties according to the great Charter of England.

The Lieutenant Generall within the province) and the Commander of the Isle of Kent (within that Island) except appeal be made from him & the Councell of the province in causes wherein the Lieutenant Generall is a plaintiff shall cause right and Justice to be done in all causes civil (wherein right or damage is demanded) according to the laws or laudable usages of this Province or otherwise according to the laws or laudable usages of England in the same or the like cases as near as he or they shall be able to Judge and shall trie all the same causes and shall or may use Command & appoint all power & means necessary or conducing thereto And the said Lieutenant Generall & Commander shall take an oath to administer equall Justice to all persons without favour or malice of any one.

The Lieutenant Generall or any one of the Councell (within the province) and the Commander of the Isle of Kent (within that Island) shall or may use Command & appoint all power & means necessary or conducing to the apprehending of felons or the keeping of the peace and the <sup>said</sup> Lieutenant Generall and Councell shall or may trie and sentence all offenders with any punishment as they shall think the offence to deserve except that in crimes extending to taking away of life or member the offender shall be first indicted and afterwards tried by twelve freemen at the least and the Commander of