THE Printer hereof, being employ'd to print the whole Body of Laws of this Province, in Force from its First Settlement to the Year 1726, Hereby gives Notice, That he intends to print no more of them than are or shall be Subscrib'd for before the Middle of May next: Therefore, all Persons who intend to have the said Body of Laws, are desir'd to send their Names and Places of Abode to William Parks, Printer, in Annapolis, or to Subscribe their Names to a Paper for that Purpose printed, and sent to the Sheriffs, and several other Gentlemen, in every County in this Province; for that as soon as the Subscription Papers are return'd, there will not be one Book more than bespoke and Subscrib'd for, to be had at any Price. Care shall be taken, that they be deliver'd in about Six or Seven Months Time, carefully corrected and revis'd, well printed, and neatly bound, at Twenty Four Shillings Currency each.

The Sheriffs and other Gentlemen, who have, or shall have any of the Subscription-Papers, are desir'd by the said William Parks to return them to him by the Twentieth of May next, that he may then know by the Number of Subscriptions, how many to print.

Note, These Bodies of Laws, made last Sessions of Assembly, that are printed at the publick Expence for every Member of Assembly, and every Magistrate of this Province, will be sent by the Printer, to the Sheriffs of the several Counties, to be by them properly distributed.

* * The said William Parks prints and sells The Clients Oath, with the Justices Certificate, required to be taken by the within Attorneys Act.
