

Five Shillings Money aforesaid a Barrel, for every Barrel so put on board of any Ship or other Vessel, for such Exportation, to be recovered and applied as aforesaid.

And be it further Enacted, That all Flour and Bread that shall be shipped off from the said Town, shall be bought and sold by the Long Hundred, or Hundred Weight of One Hundred and Twelve Pounds; and that the Commissioners shall provide for the said Officer sufficient Weights and Scales for that Purpose, where any Person suspecting the Invoice of the Weights of Flour by them bought, or brought to the said Warehouse, may have them justly and truly weighed (if desired), for which Weighing and a true Invoice or Account thereof, the said Store-keeper shall be paid one Penny Currency per Barrel, and no more.

Flour, &c.
to be sold by the Long Hundred.

And be it further Enacted, That all Flour, Bread, and other Cask in which any of the Country Produce aforesaid is contained, or intended to be sold or shipped off, shall be packed in well-seasoned Casks, and be justly and truly tared on the Bulge thereof, on the Penalty of one Shilling Currency; and every Barrel or Cask that shall appear on Trial to be tared above Four Pounds over and above it's just and true Weight, shall forfeit the Sum of Five Shillings Money aforesaid, to be recovered from the Owner or Seller of the said Casks, in the Manner aforesaid, to the Uses aforesaid.

Casks to be tared on the Bulge.

And whereas it is the Intention of this Law, that the Storage and Wharfage should be most low and reasonably rated, so as to give Encouragement and Satisfaction to all concerned, intending only to raise a reasonable and moderate Salary or Reward, to engage an able and sufficient Person to take on him the faithful Discharge and Management of the said Trust, and for the necessary Repair and Expences in and about the Wharf and Storehouse aforesaid: And whereas it is at present difficult to ascertain what Storage and Wharfage for Goods would be for that Purpose sufficient, therefore it may be necessary that some Persons may be trusted at present with the Settlement thereof, in the most reasonable Manner, to answer the Intention aforesaid; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners herein appointed, be hereby authorized and empowered to set moderate and reasonable Rates of Storage and Wharfage, for all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes that shall be stored in the said Storehouse or Storehouses, or landed and shipped off from the said Wharf; and which Rates they shall cause the said Storehouse-keeper to have and keep, to shew to all Persons requiring the same, and to fix a Copy thereof to remain on the Door of the said Storehouse; and that the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall have Power to lessen the said Rates at any Time by them set, when by Increase of Trade, or otherwise, it shall appear to them necessary.

Rates of Storage to be moderate and reasonable.

And be it Enacted by the Authority, Advice, and Consent aforesaid, That the said Wharf shall be kept as clear as possible from being incommoded by the long lying of Staves or other Lumber thereon, and that no such Lumber shall be suffered to lie thereon longer than Six Days, without Permission of the said Wharfinger, or two of the Commissioners aforesaid; but that the Persons owning the same, after Notice given by the said Wharfinger, shall remove the same in three Days after such Notice, on Penalty of Wharf to be kept clear as possible.
