C H A P. XV.

An ACT for the Building a Vestry-House at Chester Church, in Kent County, and Inclosing the Church-Yard, and for other Purposes.

WHEREAS the Vestry and Churchwardens of Chester Parish, in Kent County, and other Inhabitants of the said County, have, by their Petition to this General Assembly, set forth, That the said Vestry find there will be an Overplus of the One Hundred and Thirty Thousand Pounds of Tobacco allowed to build a Church for the said Parish, more than will be sufficient to build the said Church, and also that it is necessary to inclose the Yard of the said Church, and to build a sufficient and convenient Vestry-House at the said Parish Church, for the Benefit and Use of the Parishioners; and that there will be, when added to the said Overplus, more than a sufficient Sum of Tobacco, of the Savings of the said Chester Parish out of the Thirty per Poll raised on the Parishioners for the present Year, by reason of the Vacancy of an Incumbent, to inclose the said Church-Yard in a proper Manner, and to build and finish a good and sufficient Vestry-House as aforesaid; and therefore prayed, That an Act of Assembly might pass to appropriate the said Overplus, and about Sixteen Thousand Pounds of Tobacco of the Savings aforesaid, to the said Uses and Purposes.

Preamble.

II. Be it therefore Enacted, by the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary, by and with the Advice and Consent of his Lordship's Governor, and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, and the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Vestry aforesaid, and they are hereby directed and required, in some short Time after this Session of Assembly, to contract and agree with some proper Person or Persons, for the Erecting, Building, and finishing a sufficient and convenient Vestry-House at the Place aforesaid, and for inclosing, fencing, or paling in the Church-Yard aforesaid: To defray the Cost whereof, the said Vestry are hereby directed and empowered to apply the said Overplus of the One Hundred and Thirty Thousand Pounds of

A Vestry-House to be built at Chester Church.
