

V. And be it further enacted, That the said trustees, or the survivor of them, or any two of them, shall and may convey the said premises, and every part thereof, to the purchaser or purchasers of the same, on payment of the whole purchase money, and interest due from such purchaser or purchasers, and not before; and in case that the interest which may accrue on the said bonds, or either of them, shall not be duly paid, then the said trustees, or the survivor of them, shall and may put such bond or bonds in suit, for the recovery of the whole principal and interest therein mentioned, the time of payment at a future day notwithstanding.

C H A P.
XXIX, XXX, XXXI.

To convey the premises, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case the said trustees, or either of them, shall receive any of the said purchase money before the time limited for payment thereof, that then they shall put out and lend the same on bond with good security, with condition for payment, as before specified; and such bond or bonds so to be taken, shall be subject to the same regulations, dispositions, transfers, and survivorship, as those herein before mentioned and directed.

To lend purchase money
on bond, &c.

C H A P. XXX.

An ACT for the relief of the collectors of the tax in this state.

WHEREAS it is represented, that sundry collectors of the tax of this state have, through their indulgence, omitted to execute for the taxes within the time limited by law; and this general assembly, being willing to give the same summary mode to said collectors to collect the arrearages of taxes as they could have had under the law for the assessment of property :

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the collectors of the tax be empowered to collect all arrearages and balances due them, of the public taxes, by execution or otherwise, in as full and ample manner as they heretofore could have done, had the same been done in the time limited by law.

Arrearages to be collected,
&c.

C H A P. XXXI.

A Supplement to the act to regulate public ferries.

WHEREAS many persons may, between the sitting of the several county courts in this state, be desirous to keep public ferries; and whereas no provision is made nor any power given to the justices in that case :

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That on the application of any person desirous to keep a public ferry, at any place within this state where ferries have heretofore been usually kept, any two justices of the peace may, between the sitting of the county court, appoint such person to keep ferry until the next county court, agreeable to the act for regulating public ferries; and any person obtaining such permit shall enter into recognizance before the two justices aforesaid, similar to the recognizance directed by the above recited act.

Justices may appoint persons to keep ferry, &c.

III. And