C H A P. XI.

An ACT for laying out a road from Philip Shoal's mill, in Baltimore county, until it intersects the main road leading from Frederick-town to Baltimore-town, between Mansell's and Hood's tavern, in Anne-Arundel county.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by Preamble: the petition of sundry inhabitants of Anne-Arundel and Baltimore counties, that they labour under great inconvenience, for want of a waggon road from Philip Shoal's mill, to the main road leading from Frederick-town to Baltimore-town; and it appearing reasonable to grant the petition:

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Hood, Nicholas Dorsey, and Philemon Dorsey, or any two of them, be and are hereby appointed commissioners, and are hereby authorized to lay off a waggon road, twenty feet wide, from the said Philip Shoal's mill, in Baltimore county aforesaid, until it intersects the main road leading from Frederick-town to Baltimore-town, between Mansell's and Hood's tavern, in Anne-Arundel county; which said road, when laid out, shall be a public road.

Commissioners to lay off a road, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid shall ascertain and value what damage such road running through any person's land as aforesaid shall amount to, which shall be paid to such person damaged as aforesaid by the said Philip Shoal.

Ascertain damage, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That the said road shall not go through any orchard, garden, or meadow, unless with the approbation of the owner.

Road not to go through orchards, &c.

C H A P. XII.

An ACT for the relief of William Knott, of Montgomery county.

WHEREAS William Knott, a nonjuror, of Montgomery county, hath petitioned this general assembly, praying to be exonerated and released from all disabilities, pains, and penalties, which nonjurors are subject to, and to have the privileges of a free citizen of this state; and it appearing that he took the oath of fidelity and support to this state, before a magistrate of Montgomery county, on the fifth day of October seventeen hundred and seventy-eight; that he has been well attached to the liberty and independence of this state, and is a useful member of the community: Therefore,

Preamble:

II. Be
