

collectors, and the same proceedings shall be had to settle his and their account of the said tax for the said four years, in the proportions and at the times prescribed for settling the taxes of the year seventeen hundred and eighty-six; and the same proceedings shall be had to settle his and their account of that part of the tax which is called the seven and six-penny tax, in case he or they shall not settle for and pay the same on or before the first day of October next.

C H A P.
XXXIX.

V. And be it enacted, That if the said William Campbell shall neglect or refuse to act, the governor and council shall appoint such other person or persons as they shall approve, to execute the duties by this act imposed on the said William Campbell; and that the said person or persons, so to be appointed by the governor and council, shall give bond, with such security as the governor and council shall approve, and that the commissioners shall settle the account of the said person or persons so to be appointed, in the same manner as they are directed by this act to settle with the said William Campbell; and that the payment of the money which shall be due from the said person or persons to be appointed in virtue of this act, shall, after the said days respectively, be enforced in the same manner as is prescribed by law for the recovery of taxes from the other collectors for the year seventeen hundred and eighty-six.

In case of refusal, governor, &c. to appoint, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That the same William Campbell, or upon his neglect or refusal to act, the collector or collectors to be appointed by the governor and council under this act, shall have authority to appoint a deputy or deputies, who shall have the power of collecting under him or them, and he or they may take bond from him or them, with security, for obliging him or them to comply with their duty, and perform such agreement as he or they shall make; and the said William Campbell, or person or persons to be appointed under this act in case of his refusal or neglect to act, shall have the same proceedings to compel a settlement and payment by any of his or their deputies, or their securities, agreeably to the tenor of their bond, that the other collectors in this state are entitled to against their deputies.

Collector may appoint deputies, &c.

VII. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of the tax for Anne-Arundel county shall settle the account of the said William Campbell, or other person or persons to be appointed under this act, and payment thereof may be enforced by the mode established for recovery from other collectors generally; and the commissioners shall make the said William Campbell, or other collector or collectors to be appointed under this act, an allowance for the taxes due from insolvents; and in case of a difference between them respecting insolvents, the collector or collectors aforesaid may appeal to the governor and council, whose determination shall be final; but in case the governor and the council shall not determine before any fixed day of settling with the treasurer, the said William Campbell, or the collector or collectors to be appointed under this act, shall settle with and pay the treasurer, according to the decision of the commissioners, and shall afterwards be entitled to an allowance for, or return of, the surplus payment.

Commissioners to settle his account, &c.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the powers for collecting the said taxes, and the powers granted for compelling the deputies to make settlement, and all the other powers granted for enabling the said collector or collectors to settle and pay, shall continue until the end of the year seventeen hundred and ninety.

Powers to continue.

IX. And be it enacted, That William Holmes, John Magruder and Edward Burgess, of Montgomery county, are hereby appointed commissioners of the tax in Montgomery county; and that the said William Holmes, John Magruder and Edward Burgess, together with Samuel Thomas and Allen Bowie, now acting commissioners, exercise all the powers and duties given to and required of the commissioners of said county by the laws of this state.

Commissioners appointed, &c.