

RESOLUTIONS assented to said Francis Deakins by the act of November session, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, chapter forty-four, section the eighteenth, shall be in full for his services, and other expences, in surveying and plotting the lands westward of Fort Cumberland; the above certificate to be receivable in taxes.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore, or the officer in whose hands the same may be, deliver up to Richard Mason his bond given for the purchase of the schooner Two Sisters, seized by John Courts Jones, Esquire, and sold by order of the court of admiralty, on his producing satisfactory vouchers that he has paid and satisfied all charges and fees which have accrued from the said seizure.

RESOLVED, That the right of this state to demand interest from all such collectors, since the first day of January, seventeen hundred and eighty-three, as have discharged the principal sum of their collections, be and it is hereby relinquished; provided that the said collectors respectively shall return to the treasurers of their respective shores a correct list, on oath, of all such persons from whom they have collected interest, and the amount thereof, and pay the same to the treasurers before their respective bonds shall be cancelled, and they shall not collect interest on any sums which may now be due from the people to them respectively as collectors aforesaid.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of their respective shores do deliver up to such collectors their respective bonds as collectors aforesaid to be cancelled, the said collectors first paying the amount of such interest by them respectively received before the said bonds shall be delivered.

RESOLVED, That John Smith, of Baltimore-town, and William Smithson, of Harford county, Esquires, be and they are hereby authorized to determine whether any and what sum of money ought to be paid by Baltimore to Harford county, within the true meaning of the act of the last session, entitled, An act to lay a further tax on the people of Harford county to complete the public buildings of said county, and for other purposes, first giving notice to the county courts of the said counties of the time and place of their meeting for the purpose of considering and determining the same; and such determination, when made in writing, and signed by the said arbitrators, shall be final and conclusive, and upon its being produced to Baltimore county court, they shall levy and assess the sum by the said arbitrators adjudged to be due (if any) on the taxable property in the said county, and the sum so assessed shall be collected with, and in the same manner as, the county tax, and paid to the order of Harford county court, and appropriated according to the directions of the said act; provided, that in case a difference should arise between the said arbitrators, that they be empowered to call in an umpire, not an inhabitant of either of the said counties of Baltimore or Harford, to settle such difference.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esquire, hath resigned his appointment as one of the commissioners for building a new prison in the city of Annapolis; RESOLVED, That Mr. Charles Wallace be and he is hereby appointed a commissioner in the place of the said Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esquire, and he shall have all the power of any one of the said commissioners.

RESOLVED, That the several officers may and they are hereby authorized and empowered to send out their accounts of fees due them on all civil suits and executions wherein the state is and hath been plaintiff, and which fees are payable by the several defendants, and that the sheriffs of the several counties are hereby authorized and directed to collect and receive the same, by execution or otherwise, in the same manner, and upon the same terms, as are prescribed in the act for the regulation of officers fees, and pay the same to the several officers, or their order, after deducting their usual commissions.

RESOLVED, That in future all officers return their accounts of fees, on oath, to the committee of claims, for which they claim an allowance from the state, fairly
