

THOMAS SIM LEE, Esquire, Governor. April - 1792.

II. And be it enacted, That on application, in writing, by the proprietors of lots in Rogers's Addition to Baltimore-town, to the special commissioners of the said town, for permission to enclose the said lots, or any part thereof, that thereupon the said commissioners shall view the Addition, and grant, under hand and seal, permission to enclose the said lots, including such streets, lanes and alleys, as they shall think proper, reserving, nevertheless, a thoroughfare through the said Addition, by directing such street or streets in the said Addition to be left open, so as to correspond with other streets leading into the country and improved parts of Baltimore-town, as, in their judgment, may appear necessary.

CHAP. VI.

On application, lots may be enclosed, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That on any application of any proprietor or proprietors of the said lots to the said street commissioners to remove the fences made as aforesaid, or such part of the same as he or they may state to be conducive to the interest of the said Addition, that thereupon they shall grant their assent, in writing, and record the same, with the application; provided nevertheless, that it shall have appeared to the said commissioners that the said removal may be conducive to the interest of the said Addition; and thereupon the applicants, or either of them, may remove the obstructions granted to be removed; provided always, that previous notice shall be given to the party concerned, that he or they may have an opportunity to remove the same.

And fences removed, &c.

C H A P. VII.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act to provide for the further encouragement and establishment of Washington college, and to an act, entitled, An act for founding a college on the western shore of this state, and constituting the same, together with Washington college, on the eastern shore, into one university, by the name of the University of Maryland, passed November session, seventeen hundred and eighty-four.

Passed April 6.

WHEREAS there may be a necessity for granting licences to retailers of spirituous liquors between the sitting of the several county courts of this state, and there is no provision for granting licences in such cases,

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That during the continuance of the original acts to which this is a supplement, it shall be lawful for the chief justice, or either of the associate justices, of any county court in this state, to grant licences to such persons as they shall think fit to be retailers of spirituous liquors, within the counties where such chief justice, or associate justices, respectively reside; which licences shall continue in force until the end of the next county court after the same shall be granted, and for the taking of which the retailers as aforesaid shall pay in proportion to the time between their taking thereof and the end of the next court aforesaid.

Chief justice, &c. may grant licences, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That every person who shall apply for a licence under this act, shall enter into a recognizance, before the justice who shall grant the said licence, with security, in the same sum, and in the same manner and on the same conditions, and shall be subject to the same regulations, orders, forfeitures and penalties, to be recovered in the same manner, as are prescribed by the said original acts with respect to retailers of spirituous liquors licensed under the same.

Persons applying to enter into recognizance, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That the said justices shall make return of all recognizances by them taken in virtue of this act, with the sum of money received for the licence thereon endorsed, to the county court of the county where the same shall be taken, and shall pay all money, so received by them, to the clerk of the said court, at or before the next sitting of the said court after the granting of the said licence.

Justices to make return, &c.
