

SYSTEM of EDUCATION.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the visitors and directors of each county shall annually, on or before the first day of December in each year, return to the general assembly an account of all sums by them received in virtue of this act, the names of the persons to whom paid, for what use, and how many poor scholars have been educated, as also a state of the county schools, the name of the teacher or teachers engaged, and the number and names of the scholars actually at said county schools.

IX. And be it enacted, That the visitors and directors of each county shall and they are hereby authorized to employ some person in each county as a clerk, to keep and make out their proceedings and accounts; and the said respective clerks shall be entitled to receive from the visitors and directors a sum not exceeding fifteen dollars each.

X. And be it enacted, That the visitors and directors of the grammar school of each county, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to direct that two boys of the most promising genius, belonging to the county, shall always be properly clothed, boarded and educated, at the said grammar school, provided the parents of such boys shall not be in circumstances to defray the expense of the education of such boys.

XI. Provided always, That nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the visitors and directors of any county schools of any adjoining county appointed in virtue thereof, from uniting, at any time, the county schools of such counties, and from drawing and applying to the said schools, so united, the sum of money allowed to such counties respectively, if this union should take place by the consent of the majority of the visitors and directors of each of said counties, signified in writing.

XII. And be it enacted, That the following persons shall be and are hereby constituted and appointed visitors and directors of the several county schools in their respective counties, to wit: For Saint-Mary's county, _____; Kent, John Lambert Wilmer, George Wilson, James Pearce, Oliver Smith, James Scott, John Thomas and Cuthbert Hall; Calvert, Thomas Parran, Charles Williamson, Joseph Wilkinson, Frederick Skinner, Walter Smith, John Rawlings and John Chesley; Charles, John Parnham, John Campbell, Francis Digges, Daniel Jenifer, doctor John Hawkins, John Forbes and Francis Newman; Baltimore, John Ireland, Patrick Allison, Thomas Jones, James Carroll, John Tolly Worthington, Thomas Love and John Cromwell; Talbot, reverend John Bowie, William Hayward, David Kerr, John Roberts, Samuel Chamberlaine, James Goldsborough and doctor James Wilson; Cæcil, Thomas Moffit, Tobias Rudolph, David Smith, Hezekiah Ford, William Ward and John Hartshorne; Prince-George's, William Beans, Thomas Duckett, John Stewart, Thomas Snowden, Walter Addison, William Baker and Robert Bowie; Queen-Anne's, James Tilghman, Joshua Seney, reverend Samuel Keene, junior, Joseph Hopper Nicholson, William Ringgold, junior, Richard Tilghman Earle and James Holliday; Frederick, George Murdock, Richard Potts, Philip Thomas, Baker Johnson, Francis Mantz, John M'Pherson and George Baer, junior; Harford, John Archer, Jacob Hall, George Lucky, Samuel Hughes, James Bond, of Joshua, Jesse Jarrett and Josias Carvil Hall; Somerset, John Done, Levin Winder, George Robertson, associate justice, William Stone, Benjamin F. A. C. Dashiell, John Gale and George Waters; Worcester, John Rankin, David Ball, Ephraim King Wilson, Littleton Robins, John Selby Purnell, John Holland and James Bacon; Dorchester, John Henry, William Vans Murray, Josiah Bayly, John Eccleston, John Craig, Thomas Woolford and Moses Le-compte; Caroline, Samuel Keene, William Richardson, Matthew Driver, Henry Downes, Joseph Richardson, Joshua Driver and Joseph Nichols; Montgomery, Stephen Blumer Balch, Thomas Reed, Thomas Cramphin, Richard Wootton, James Anderson, Zadock Magruder, junior, and Thomas Davis; Washington, George Bower, George Smucker, George Rawhauser, Samuel Young, Elie Williams, Nathaniel Rochester and Samuel Hughes; Allegany, Patrick Murdock, Hanson Briscoe, John Lynn, Walter Brooke Beall, John Mitchell, John Simkins and Thomas Cresap.

33/
336

Heath
Beatty

Quet
Quet
Quet