C H A P. LXXVII.

Passed 31st of
Dec. 1801.

An ACT to repeal an act, entitled, An act to lay out several turnpike roads in Baltimore county, and the several supplements thereto, and for other purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the several turnpike roads in Baltimore county have been surveyed, laid out, marked and bounded, according to the provisions of the act, entitled, An act to lay out several turnpike roads in Baltimore county, and the several supplements thereto: And whereas the same are opened and supported at a very great and expensive charge to the said county, and the provisions of the executive part of the several laws relative to said turnpike roads are not sufficiently guarded, and the said expences and charges under proper regulations may be very considerably decreased, and the said roads may be kept in better repair; therefore,

Justices to meet, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the levy court of Baltimore county shall meet at the court-house of said county on the second Monday in February next after the passage of this act, and shall proceed to appoint a fit and proper person as supervisor of the turnpike roads in Baltimore county, who shall, before he acts as such, give bond to the state of Maryland in the penalty of five thousand dollars, with such security as the justices of the levy court shall approve, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties required of him by this act; and the said supervisor shall, before he acts as such, take the following oath, or affirmation, before some one justice of the levy court, to wit: "I, A. B. do affirm, or make oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that I will well, truly and faithfully, discharge the duties as supervisor of the turnpike roads of Baltimore county to the best of my skill and judgment; so help me God."

Supervisor to settle annually,
&c.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said supervisor appointed in virtue of this act, shall, on the first Tuesday of October next, and on the same day annually thereafter, settle his account, on oath or affirmation, with the said levy court, wherein shall be stated a full account of all the monies received and all monies expended by him in virtue of his office, and an account of all the particular articles by him purchased, and of whom, with the vouchers relative thereto, which account, so exhibited, upon oath or affirmation, when the same shall have passed the levy court, shall be lodged in the clerk's office of Baltimore county.
