

Dec. Ses. 1816 Allegany) county, containing seventeen thousand seven hundred and fifty acres of land; and although the said certificate is thereon endorsed "for the office," no record thereof appears to have been made in the land office; and it appearing that sundry surveys made of lands adjoining to the said manor, or tract of land, call to begin at the end of, or to run to, with or from, some one of the lines thereof, by the name of Lord Baltimore's Manor, or the Certificate to be recorded.

* Manor of the Great Glades; Therefore,
 Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the register of the land office for the western shore be, and he hereby is authorised and directed, to enter amongst the records of the said land office the certificate now in the said office, purporting to be of a survey of a tract or parcel of land commonly called Lord Baltimore's Manor, on the Great Glades, containing seventeen thousand seven hundred and fifty acres, lying formerly in Frederick, but now in Allegany county, and dated the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, made in pursuance of a special order from the then governor, for his Lordship the Right Honourable Frederick, Lord Baron of Baltimore, and signed by Francis Deakins, then one of the deputy surveyors, and that an attested copy under seal, of the said certificate, or of the record to be made thereof as aforesaid, shall have the same effect and validity, to all intents and purposes, as the said original would have if produced and proved.

CHAPTER 249.

Passed Feb. 5. An act for opening and extending South-Street, in the City of Baltimore.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Robert Mills, president of the Baltimore Water Company, John E. Howard, James Hindman, and others, have by their petition to this general assembly set forth, that a new road, to be opened by widening and extending North Lane, intersecting Baltimore-street, opposite to South-street, in the city of Baltimore, till it intersects the York-town turnpike road, in the judgment of your memorialists is highly desirable and necessary, and if laid out would prove to be eminently advantageous, and of permanent utility, not only to the citizens of Baltimore, but also to the whole community, to be laid out as follows; that is to say; Beginning at the north-east corner of Baltimore-street, and North Lane, and running thence along the east side of North Lane, (viz. South-street extended) to its intersection with the west side of the Baltimore Water Company's canal; thence along the west side of the said canal to its intersection with Jones's Falls, thence along the west side of Jones's Falls to a point north twenty-nine and an half degrees, east thirteen perches, from the south-west corner of the tail-race wall of Keller and Forman's Mill, thence in a straight line along the east side of the proposed road to the north-west corner of the abutment parapet wall of the bridge on the York turnpike road; Therefore,

Street to be opened and extended.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Lorman, Solomon Etting, Isaac Tyson, James Wilson, James Carroll and George Hoffman, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to open, extend and lay out, the said street, of such width as the said commis-
