

left at his place of residence, within ten days after receiving the same, under the penalty of ten dollars current money for every neglect by the sheriff or clerk respectively; and if any person appointed supervisor as aforesaid, shall not lodge his warrant with the county clerk within fifteen days after he shall receive the same, he shall be considered as accepting the appointment, and may be proceeded against for neglect of duty accordingly.

Dec. Ses. 1821.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That whenever the public roads shall want repairs, except in wheat harvest, it shall be the duty of each supervisor to call on all persons within his district, or as many as he may deem necessary, who shall have paid county taxes, or shall be charged with the same, (except persons owning water mills over which a public road leads,) at least two days before he intends working on said roads, and to notify them of his intentions, and the place and hour of meeting, and what tools they must furnish, whose duty it shall be to attend at the hour appointed with such tolls as shall be required, with all their able bodied males which belong to them, or are in their employ and under their control; Provided, That no female, or white male over fifty years of age, or under twenty-one years of age, nor any slave over sixty years of age or under eighteen years of age, shall be obliged to attend or work; but it shall be their duty to furnish all able bodied males within said ages, and to attend themselves, if males, and within the ages aforesaid, whenever required as aforesaid, under a penalty not exceeding seventy-five cents nor under fifty cents for every hand or person so required, to be recovered in the name of the state, by the supervisor, before a justice of the peace in said county, as other small debts are; which shall be accounted for by the supervisor on oath to the Levy Court; and the supervisor may receive any fine as aforesaid without a warrant, and account for the same as aforesaid.

Repairs—fines.

Proviso.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the supervisor to direct each free male person of color, above the age of twenty-one years, and under the age of fifty years, residing within his district, to meet upon the day, and at the place appointed for such purpose by the supervisor aforesaid, and to labor in repairing the said public roads, under the same regulations and penalties as other persons.

Free persons of color to work.

7. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of each supervisor, to make such commutation of labor for team and carts or wagons at the time of such notice as he may think proper, and to appoint an early hour in each day to commence working on the road, and continue the hands, when necessary, to a late hour in each day, and to see that each hand does his duty on the road.

May commute labor for teams, &c.

8. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any of the supervisors appointed by this act, shall not sufficiently clear, amend and keep in good order and repair, the public roads within his district, or shall suffer any fallen trees or other obstructions, to remain in or across any of the said public roads whereby any cart, wagon or other carriage may be obstructed for more than three days together, he having notice thereof, or shall neglect to fall all dead trees on either side of the said public roads, whose limbs hang over, and may by their falling injure travellers, or to lop or cut off all limbs or branches of trees hanging or projecting over the road, within fifteen feet above the surface thereof, or shall suffer any of the bridges or cause-ways to Neglect of duty—penalty.