

2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That so much of the act to which this is a supplement as is repugnant to the provisions herein contained, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Dec. Ses. 1821.
Repeal.

CHAPTER 130.

An act vesting certain property in the eastern part of the City of Baltimore, in trustees, for the use and benefit of the Society of Friends, or people called Quakers, in the said city. Passed Jan, 28, 1822.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this legislature, that the lots of ground lying on the east side of Jones' Falls, and included within York, Harford and Pitt streets and Smock Alley, in the city of Baltimore, which were heretofore vested in trustees for the use and benefit of the society of friends, or people called Quakers, in the city of Baltimore, by two several acts of assembly, (one passed in seventeen hundred and ninety-three, chapter twenty, the other in eighteen hundred and twelve, chapter one hundred and fifty-eight,) may be lost to said society or people by the death of the present trustees, there being no existing authority to appoint other trustees; Therefore, Preamble.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That the lots of ground or property mentioned and referred to in the acts of assembly of seventeen hundred and ninety-three, chapter twenty, and eighteen hundred and twelve, chapter one hundred and fifty eight, and all the estate and interest therein, be, and the same is hereby vested in John Trimble, Ely Balderson, David Brown, Ezra Gillingham, Isaac Tyson, Jr. and William Hopkins, (the three first named now belonging and being members of the meeting that now assemble for worship on the property aforesaid, the other persons belonging to and being members of the monthly meeting for the western district of said city,) and their successors, to be appointed as is hereinafter directed, to be held by the said trustees and their successors for the exclusive use and benefit, (except as is hereinafter excepted) of that portion of the said society or people residing in the eastern part of the city of Baltimore, who now are or who may hereafter be attached to the meeting now held or which may hereafter be held at the meeting-house, situated and being on the lots or property aforesaid. Property vested.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said trustees and their successors shall also hold the said property in trust, that both the existing meetings of the said society or people in the said city, or any other meeting that may hereafter be established in the city by such society or people, shall have equal right and privilege to use the said property as a burial ground for the interment of the members belonging respectively to such meeting, and of such other persons as by the discipline of said society may be interred in any other burial ground of such society; and the burial or funeral committees of such meetings shall have the like control and direction over said property in making the interments aforesaid; Provided always, That each of the said meetings shall pay a fair proportion of the expenses of enclosing the said burial ground, and of all other expenses attending the same. Burial ground Proviso.

3. And to prevent all disputes as to the extent of the said lots to be used as a burial ground as aforesaid, BE IT ENACTED, That all and every part of the said lots, shall be subject to be used as a bu- Extent.