

Dec. Ses. 1822

not exceeding thirty dollars, for the support of Matilda Simmons; thirty dollars for the support of Elizabeth Brewer, to be paid to Robert Welsh for her use; thirty dollars for the support of Robert Stalker, to be paid to his brother John Stalker for his use; thirty dollars to Hannah Jenkins, to be paid to Abner Linthicum for her use; twenty five dollars for the support of Elizabeth Journey; twenty five dollars to Maria Dowell, and thirty dollars for the use of Dorothy Journey, which two last sums shall be paid to Rezin Estep for their use; twenty dollars to Moses Deaver, on account of his idiot daughter, and the same sum severally to Lanch Nicholson, Milly Smith, Ann Childs and Rebecca Blunt, and twenty five dollars to Richard Joice, and that the same be collected annually by the collector of Anne Arundel county, and by him paid over to the said persons respectively or to their several orders.

Sarah Mace.

3. And be it enacted, That the sum heretofore levied in the name of Sarah Moore of said county, be paid over to Sarah Mace for whom said levy was designed; and that in future the levy court levy annually twenty dollars for the support of said Sarah Mace, and discontinue the levy for Sarah Moore.

Levy court may reduce,
&c.

4. And be it enacted, That the levy courts of the aforesaid counties shall have power at all times hereafter to reduce or discontinue the allowance made by law to any out pensioner of their county, whenever they shall see fit so to do.

CHAPTER 181.

Passed Feb
22, 1823.
Preamble.

An act relating to the inspection of salted fish in the city of Baltimore.
Whereas, it appears by an ordinance passed in eighteen hundred and twenty one, by the mayor and city council of Baltimore, that the landing and storage of fish in any warehouse in the city convenient to market is prohibited, Therefore,

May land fish

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be lawful for any owner or owners of fish to land any number of barrels on any public wharf in the city of Baltimore for inspection, sale or exportation, except between the first day of May and the first day of November, in each year; Provided, the owner or owners pay the wharfage which may be incurred, to the owners or proprietors of the said wharf or wharves, any law, custom, or ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding;

Exception, &c. receipt.

2. And be it enacted, That when fish are landed at the warehouse for inspection, that it shall be the duty of the inspector to give a receipt for the number of barrels of fish, as soon as inspected and coopered; and it shall not be lawful for the inspector to charge for one month's storage or the hire of a scow, Provided the owner or owners demand their removal to the city of Baltimore before three o'clock of the same day they were landed, or if the said owner or owners choose to take their barrels of fish in their own or any other vessel, on the day they are inspected, before five o'clock; any law or ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 182.

Passed Feb.
22, 1823.
Preamble.

An act relating to the heirs of Doctor John Trotten, of Baltimore county,

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly, that Doctor John Trotten, late of Baltimore county, died intestate seized of certain lands in Patapsco neck in said county, leaving a widow and three children his heirs at law, the youngest of whom Mary Trotten is a