

Terms Viz; To leave the power of dissolving the house to the Speaker the Lower house & to reserve to himself as representing his Lordship a or casting voice as he expressed it. The Secretary refused to enter the Lower house with the Governour upon those Terms, it being a Breach of his Lordship's Right, Royal Jurisdiction & Seignery & his reasons & desired to have them entered upon Record in the Journal in the Lower house but was denied it by the Governour Whereupon he & Mr Baker Brooke departed the House (after leave given) & said / & given in these words or to this Effect.

"You may if you please We shall not force you to go or stay."
uttered by the Governour.
