

The House Adjourned till two of the Clock in the afternoon

The House met again Present as in the morning with Mr. Inman & Mr. Taylor

The House Adjourned till tomorrow Morning nine of the Clock

Thursday 21st May the House met

Present as yesterday except Mr. Inman Voted that a message be sent to the Members of the Lower house to know of them if they will consent with the Upper House in drawing up a List of such Laws of England as are necessary for his Majestys Judges & Justices of the Provincial Court to proceed upon all Criminal Cases & in preparing an Act empowering & enjoining them to proceed according to such Laws ascertained by such a List

Mr. Taylor sent with the messages prepared yesterday touching Ordinary & Appeals & Barges & with the message touching the List of the Laws

An Answer to the message touching the List of the Laws is returned from the Lower house by Mr. Webb & Mr. Statton as followeth

Voted that the message of the upper House touching the List of Laws of England touching Criminal Cases is necessary & that a message be sent to the Upper house to desire them to appoint some Members of their house to join with some of this house in a Committee for drawing up a List & Bill as the upper House hath desired & the Lower House with all imaginable Gratitude return their thanks to his Excellency for his gracious Condescension to the Request of this house touching Ordinary Appeals and Barges and this House doth acquiesce with his Excellency's Resolution therein

Signed for the House Robert Ridgley Clerk

Robert Brooke Esq. sent to the Lower House to know whether they will be ready in the afternoon to join in a Committee with some members of the upper House for drawing up a List & Bill for Laws in Criminal Cases & Return with the Names following Viz