

it by Pifneres
inail

That will sacrifice if so be any good that before it, that this place in come in may be supplied with some able Divind. —

His Excellency proposes to the Board that wherever there are Judgments upon Navigation Bonds, whether it will not be that Execution should issue there on. —

The Board do advise his Excellency that the Executing of Judgments be suspended for that they are of Opinion that if any should be executed therefore they have not where withall to mar satisfaction, and it would affright many persons out of The Act of Assembly made in Sep^r 1694 Entituled an Act for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty's present Governo: falling under the Consideration of the Board and whether it may be justifiable to levy the duties therein mentioned. To which Board do answer that they do believe the same is justifiable

His Excellency says that he does not pretend to it but that it is country. —

His Excellency acquaints the Board that called Daniel John (name) and every one with understood to be a God had told him and it is considered to be just