The following message was sent to the house of delegates by Thomas Jennings, Esq;

By the S E N A T E, June 23, 1778.

Gentlemen,

HAVING nearly finished the business of this session, we do not know any thing to prevent our rising this day. We therefore think proper to inform you, that the first Monday in November next is the time to which this house propose to adjourn.

By order,

R. RIDGELY, cl. sen.

Mr. Gibson and Mr. Williams, from the house of delegates, deliver to the president the engrossed bills, No. 8 and 9, with the paper bills thereof, which said engrossed bills were thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, June 23, 1778: Read and assented to."

"By order,

G. DUVALI, cl. ho. del."

The said engrossed bills were read and assented to, and the paper bills sent to the house of delegates by Matthew Tilghman, Esq;

On motion, ORDERED, That William Hindman, Esq; wait upon his excellency, and request his attendance in the senate to sign and seal the engrossed bills. The governor appeared in the senate. ORDERED, That Matthew Tilghman and Charles Carroll, barrister, Esqrs. acquaint the house of delegates, that the governor is ready to sign and seal the engrossed bills, and request their attendance in the senate; and the following engrossed bills were presented by the speaker to the governor, who signed the same, and affixed the great seal thereto in the presence of the members of both houses.

No. 1. An act relating to prisoners and deserters from the British army and navy.

No. 2. An act to aid the proceedings of the commissioners of the tax, and for other purposes.

No. 3. An act to prohibit, for a limited time, the exportation of wheat, flour, rye, Indian corn, rice, bread, beef, pork, bacon, live stock, and other victual.

No. 4. An act concerning the gun-lock factory in Frederick-Town in Frederick county.

No. 5. A supplementary act to the act, entitled, An act for King William's school, in Annapolis.

No. 6. A supplementary act to an act, entitled, An act for the special appointment of inspectors, and other purposes.

No. 7. An act to continue an act, entitled, An act for enlarging the power of the governor and council.

No. 8. An act for the payment of the journal of accounts.

No. 9. An act for the relief of certain nonjurors.

The senate adjourns to the first Monday in November next.

So ends this session, this 23d day of June, in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and seventy-eight.

Test.
