

Messieurs F. Gaunt and Worthington, from the house of delegates, deliver to the president the following resolution:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 8, 1780.

RESOLVED, That the commissioner of the continental treasury in this state be directed not to receive hereafter into his office any continental bills of credit in exchange, agreeable to the directions of the act for sinking the quota required by congress of this state of the bills of credit emitted by congress, passed last June session; and that the said commissioner lay before the general assembly a list of the names of all persons who have brought in continental bills to be exchanged; and the sums and dates when received into his office in virtue of the said act.

By order,

F. GREEN, clk.

The form of government requiring that each member of the senate, on their annual meeting, and before they proceed to business, should take an oath of support and fidelity to this state, the members present, in consequence thereof, severally qualified in the presence of each other before Allen Quynn, Esq;

The senate adjourns till 3 o'clock.

P O S T M E R I D I E M.

The senate met.

Messieurs Wilmer and Earle, from the house of delegates, deliver to the president the engrossed bill No. 2, with the paper bill thereof, which engrossed bill was thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, November 8, 1780: Read and assented to."

By order,

F. GREEN, clk."

Which engrossed bill was read, assented to, and the paper bill thereof so endorsed.

The resolution respecting the continental commissioner, was read and assented to.

A petition from John Berryman, praying that the assembly might grant him a support, as he had lost his hand in the American service; a petition from Nathan Gallion, praying that a ~~certified~~ recognizance might be remitted; and a petition from John Hamilton, praying that a deed might be admitted to record; were severally read, referred to the consideration of the house of delegates, and, with the above resolution, sent by William Hemsley, Esq;

The senate adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

T H U R S D A Y, November 9, 1780.

THE senate met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The senate adjourns till 3 o'clock.

P O S T M E R I D I E M.

The senate met, and adjourned till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

F R I D A Y, November 10, 1780.

THE senate met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Messieurs Kent and Mills, from the house of delegates, deliver to the president the following resolutions:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 7, 1780.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be requested to appoint proper persons to inspect the horses and waggons purchased for the state, and also those received from nonjurors, in pursuance of an act to procure an extra supply of provisions and waggons and horses, passed last June session; and it being represented by the quarter-master-general, that no more waggons or horses will be wanted to the northward during the present campaign, to order such horses and waggons as are fit for service to be immediately sent to the southern army, and those unfit for service to be sold, or to order the waggons to be repaired, if thought for the benefit of the public.

By order,

F. GREEN, clk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 9, 1780.

RESOLVED, That the governor and the council be empowered to impress such and so many vessels as they may think necessary for the purpose of reconnoitering the posture of our enemies, and watching their motions, and to press the hands belonging to the said boats, or employ other hands to man them.

By order,

F. GREEN, clk.

Which were read, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates by William Hindman, Esq;

The senate adjourns till 3 o'clock.

P O S T