The following message was sent to the house of delegates by Benedict E. Hall, Esq;

BY THE SENATE, JUNE 25, 1781.

GENTLEMEN,

WHEN the necessary business of the session is finished, we shall adjourn to the 15th of September next.

By order,

J. MACCUBBIN, clk.

The senate adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

T U E S D A Y, June 26, 1781.

THE senate met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Messieurs Norris and Kirk, from the house of delegates, deliver to the president the engrossed bill No. 27, with the paper bill thereof, which engrossed bill was thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, June 25, 1781: Read and assented to."

By order,

F. GREEN, clk."

Messieurs Dashiell and Plowden, from the house of delegates, deliver to the president the bill, entitled, An act to prevent disaffected emigrants from settling within this state, and to detect and punish the disaffected, and to prevent any correspondence or trade with the enemy, and to punish certain misdemeanors, with the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JUNE 25, 1781.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

WE agree to all your amendments to the bill to prevent disaffected emigrants, &c. except your proposal to vest the powers intended by the bill to be given to the commissioners, in any judge or justice, and your amendment to the 6th and 11th lines of the 7th page, and to the 10th line of the eighth page; and we hope your honours will wave your amendments which we have dissented to, and pass the bill without them, as many proper and necessary provisions for the safety of the state are contained in the bill.

By order,

F. GREEN, clk.

The bill, entitled, An act to prevent disaffected emigrants, &c. with the following message, was sent to the house of delegates by Matthew Tilghman, Esq;

BY THE SENATE, JUNE 26, 1781.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have waved the amendments proposed to the bill to prevent disaffected emigrants, &c. which you have not acceded to, and agree to pass the bill, striking out every thing therein respecting commissioners and their powers agreeably to your proposal.

By order,

J. MACCUBBIN, clk.

Messieurs Giles and Duckett, from the house of delegates, deliver to the president a bill, entitled, An act to abrogate and abolish part of the thirty-seventh article of the form of government, endorsed; "By the house of delegates, June 23, 1781: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table."

By order,

F. GREEN, clk.

"By the house of delegates, June 26, 1781: Read the second time and will pass."

By order,

F. GREEN, clk."

Which was read the first and second time by especial order and will pass.
