

The following resolutions were read, assented to, and, with the above bill, sent to the house of delegates by John Henry, Esq;

BY THE SENATE, JUNE 15, 1782.

Whereas representations have been made to this general assembly, by sundry purchasers of confiscated British property, in consequence of the act for the emission of bills of credit not exceeding two hundred thousand pounds, on the security of double the value in lands, to defray the expences of the present campaign; and it is apprehended, that from the prices given for the said property, and the present scarcity of money, it will greatly distress the purchasers of such property to issue executions on bonds given therefor immediately after the first day of payment in the said bonds mentioned: Therefore,

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be directed not to issue execution on default of the first payment in any of the said bonds mentioned, until the twentieth day of November next.

By order,

J. MACCUBBIN, clk.
