VOTES and PROCEEDINGS

SENATE

STATE of MARYLAND

NOVEMBER SESSION, 1788.

Being the FIFTH SESSION of the THIRD SENATE.

On Monday, the third of November, seventeen hundred and eighty-eight, being the day appointed by the constitution and form of government for the meeting of the general assembly, appeared in the senate,

GEORGE PLATER, Esquire, JOHN HALL, Esquire, DANIEL CARROLL, Esquire, Who adjourned till to-morrow morning.

THURSDAY, November 4, 1788.

THE same members appeared as on yesterday, except the honourable John Hall, Esquire, who is indisposed. The honourable Richard Ridgely, Esquire, appeared in the senate. The members present adjourn till to-morrow morning.

FRIDAY, November 5, 1788.

THE same members appeared as on yesterday. The honourable Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esquire, appeared in the senate. The members present adjourned till to-morrow morning.

THURSDAY, November 6, 1788.

THE same members appeared as on yesterday, and adjourn till to-morrow morning.

FRIDAY, November 7, 1788.

THE same members appeared as on yesterday. The honourable William Perry, Samuel Hughes and Peregrine Tilghman, Esquires, appeared in the senate. The members present adjourn till to-morrow morning.

THURSDAY, November 8, 1788.

THE same members appeared as on yesterday. The honourable John Hall, Esquire, appeared in the senate.

A sufficient number of members to compose a senate, being convened, they severally qualified in the presence of each other before Richard Harwood, Esquire, one of the justices of the peace for Anne-Arundel county, by taking the several oaths directed by the constitution and form of government, and subscribing a declaration of their belief in the christian religion.

The president lays before the senate a letter from Thomas Johnson, Esquire, declining to accept the appointment of a seat in the senate; which was read.

The senate adjourned on Monday morning.
