

The senate, having previously qualified agreeably to the constitution and form of government, proceeded to election of a governor; the ballot box being prepared, the ballots were deposited therein, sealed up, and given to the committee of the senate appointed to meet the committee of the house of delegates, who retired to the conference room, and after sometime returned and reported, that Edward Lloyd, of Wye, had eighty votes, Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, four votes, and Benjamin Stoddert one vote.

Whereupon it is declared in the senate, that Edward Lloyd, of Wye, is duly elected Governor of Maryland. The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

TUESDAY, June 6, 1809.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. John Partridge and Mr. Thomas Williams appeared in the senate.

The following message was read, agreed to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

By the SENATE, June 6, 1809.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

EDWARD LLOYD, Esquire, having been elected governor of the state, we propose that a joint letter should be written by the president of the senate and speaker of the house of delegates, and immediately forwarded by express, to notify him of his election, and to request his attendance, to be qualified according to the constitution and form of government.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

On motion, Leave given to bring in a bill, entitled, An act to alter the thirty-second article of the constitution and form of government. ORDERED, That Mr. Partridge, Mr. Lowrey and Mr. T. B. Dorsey, be a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

The following message was read, agreed to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

By the SENATE, June 6, 1809.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

WE propose, with the concurrence of your house, to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock, to go into a joint ballot for the election of a senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States during the constitutional period.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following message:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, June 6, 1809.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

WE assent to the proposal that a joint letter, signed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of delegates, should be immediately forwarded by express, to inform Edward Lloyd, Esquire, that he is elected governor, and to request his attendance, to be qualified.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which was read.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, An act to lay out a road therein mentioned, passed by that house June 6, 1809; the following resolution:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, June 6, 1809.

RESOLVED, That the printer to the state print twenty-five hundred copies of the supplement to the act to regulate and discipline the militia of this state, passed at the last session of the assembly; and it shall be the duty of the executive of Maryland, to forward, as soon as possible, to each major-general ten copies, to each brigadier-general sixteen copies, to each commanding officer of a regiment forty copies, to the commanders of each extra battalion twenty copies, to be distributed to the commissioned officers of the respective regiments, or extra battalions, as the case may be; and the treasurer of the western shore is hereby authorized to pay the expense of the same out of any unappropriated money in the treasury.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

And the following message;

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, June 6, 1809.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

HAVING received information that the office of register of wills of Montgomery county is vacant, we therefore propose to go immediately into the appointment of a person for that office. Solomon Holland is nominated by this house; and Mr. Carroll and Mr. Gaither are appointed to join such gentlemen as may be named by your house to count the ballots.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which were severally read the first time and the bill and resolution ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Partridge, from the committee, delivers a bill, entitled, An act to alter the thirty-second article of the constitution and form of government; which was read the first and second time by especial order, passed, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The president laid before the senate a letter from the executive relative to their appointment of Gen. Samuel Smith to fill a vacancy which occurred in the representation of this state in the senate of the United States.
