

4th. After the word "states" in the ninth line insert "and territories."

The journal of accounts was read the second time by special order, assented to and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill entitled, An act for the payment of the journal of accounts, was read the second time by special order, passed and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution in favor of James Hall, Anne Hackett and others. The resolution relative to the resolutions approving of the administration of the general government; and the resolution in favor of John Boone, were severally read the second time by special order, assented to and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The following message was read, agreed to and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk:

BY THE SENATE, Jan. 7, 1812.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have finished the business before us, and are prepared to close the session immediately. We have nominated Messrs. Davis and N. Williams a committee on the part of the senate to join the gentlemen to be nominated by your house to wait on the governor and request his attendance in the senate chamber to sign and seal the laws according to the constitution of this state.

By order,

T. ROGERS, Clk.

The clerk of the house of delegates returns me bill entitled, An act for the valuation of real and personal property within this state, with the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Jan. 7, 1812.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return to your honorable body the bill for the valuation of real and personal property in this state, with a hope that you will, upon reflection, think proper to withdraw your amendments and pass the bill.

By order,

JOHN BREWER, Clk.

Which was read.

On motion, the question was put, Will the senate recede from their amendments to said bill? Determined in the negative, and the bill sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following resolutions:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Jan. 7, 1812.

Resolved, That the treasurer of the Western Shore be, and he is hereby directed to pay unto the president and trustees of the Rockville Academy, in Montgomery county, or their order, the sum of eight hundred dollars, on the first Monday in October