So it was determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Neale, the question was put, that the house reconsider the bill entitled, an act to pay the civil list and other expenses of civil government for the year eighteen hundred and fifteen? Resolved in the affirmative.

The bill being read and amended, the question was put, shall the said bill pass? Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Stoddert, the following message was read:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, January 24, 1816.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We feel no disposition to leave the officers of the civil list without provision, and therefore return you the bill for reconsideration as amended by us as to date, & hope on further examination and thought you will concur with us in the opinion that no constitutional objection to the bill in its present form exists.

By order,

LOUIS GASSAWAY, CLK.

The message having been read the second time the question was put, that the house assent to the same? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
