

The bill to encourage the destruction of crows in the several counties therein mentioned, was read a third time, passed with the proposed amendment, and returned to the house of delegates.

The resolution relative to the powers of congress, was read a second, and by special order, a third time, amended, assented to with the proposed amendment, and returned to the house of delegates, amendment proposed, after the word "improvement," insert, by means of roads and canals.

On motion, the bill to confirm an act to alter and abolish so much of the constitution and form of government of the state of Maryland, as relates to the oath to be taken by the senators and delegates previous to the election of governor and council, was referred to Messrs. Tilghman, Brownley, and Johnson.

The bill to confirm the name of Walker Bennett Dickinson, alias Walker Bennett Schrodrink, of Dorchester county, was read a second, and by special order, a third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Johnson asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled "a supplement to an act entitled an act for amending and reducing into system, the laws and regulations concerning last wills and testaments, the duties of executors, administrators, and guardians, and the rights of orphans and other representatives of deceased persons." Ordered, that Messrs. Johnson, Tilghman, and Dickinson, should be a committee to prepare and report the same.

The clerk of the house of delegates, delivered a resolution relative to the election of president and vice-president, which was read the first time and laid on the table.

Also, a bill entitled "an act for the revaluation of real and personal property in Talbot county," which was read the first time, and referred to Messrs. Dickinson, Quinton and Tilghman.

Also, a bill entitled "a supplement to an act entitled an act to introduce wholesome water into the city of Frederick," which was read the first time and laid on the table.

Also, a bill entitled "an act extending the time of taking the bond of the sheriff of Charles county, which was read the first time and laid on the table.

Mr. Johnson from the committee, reported a bill entitled "a supplement to an act entitled an act for amending and reducing into system the laws and regulations concerning last wills and testaments, the duties of executors, administrators and guardians, and the rights of orphans and other representatives of deceased persons," which was read the first time and laid on the table.

The resolution relative to the election of president and vice-president, was read the second time, and laid on the table.

The senate adjourned until Monday morning 10 o'clock.