

The bill for the relief of Catharine Tennison, of the city of Baltimore, was read a third time by special order, passed, and sent to the house of delegates.

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.

Tuesday, January 17th, 1826.

The senate met. Present, the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill to regulate the meetings of the trustees of the poor of Dorchester county, was read a third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The supplement to the act to introduce wholesome water in the city of Frederick, was read a second time and laid on the table.

Mr. Scott asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill to be entitled, an act to incorporate the Maryland academy of science and literature. Ordered that Messrs. Scott, Brownley and Dickerson, should be a committee to prepare and report the same.

Mr. Bowie asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill for the relief of James Mably and wife, of Prince George's county. Ordered that Messrs. Bowie, Quinton and Dickerson, should be a committee to prepare and report the same.

Mr. Johnson from the committee reported a bill entitled, an act for the amendment of the law; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

The bill regulating courts of error and granting appeals to the court of appeals was read a second time.

On motion, the question was put, will the senate amend the bill by striking out the words "as follows or," in the fifteenth line of the first section? Determined in the affirmative.

On motion, the question was put, will the senate amend the bill by adding at the end of the first section, the following: "And in case each appeal be from a decree of the court of chancery, or of a county court, setting as a court of equity, decreeing the sale of mortgages, or other incumbered property to pay the amount of the mortgage debt, or other incumberance, than the condition of such bond, shall be in substance that the appellant or appellents shall well and truly pay to the appellee or appellees, his, her, or their executors, administrators or assigns, the amount of such mortgage, debt or other incumberance, with the damages and costs ascertained and adjudged to be due by such decree, in case the said decree shall be affirmed?" Determined in the affirmative.

On motion, the question was put, will the senate amend the bill by inserting the words "or register," after the word "clerk," in the fifth line of the second section? Determined in the affirmative.