

And the the question was put, and determined in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Smith, the Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the bill entitled, an act for the general valuation and assessment of property in this State.

Mr. Kennedy, moved to lay the said bill upon the table.

And the question was put, and determined in the negative.

The said bill was then read a second time.

The bill entitled, an act to establish the divisional lines between Harford and Cecil counties, was read a third time, and on motion of Mr. Rees, was ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Herbert, from the committee, reported a bill entitled, an act for the benefit of Louis McLane, of the State of Delaware.

The said bill was then read the first, and by special order a second time and, ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Heath, the Senate resumed the consideration of the bill entitled, an act relating to habitual drunkards.

The question before the Senate, being on the engrossment of the bill for a third reading.

And the question was put, and determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Herbert, from the committee, reported a bill entitled, a further additional supplement to an act to regulate the inspection of tobacco.

Which was read the first time and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Sewell, from the committee, made a favorable report upon the bill entitled, an act to divorce James Poteet, and Margaret Poteet, of Harford county.

The said bill was then read a second, and by special order, a third time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Heath, the engrossed bill entitled, an additional supplement to the act for enlarging the powers of the Chancery court, was read a third time.

On motion of Mr. Heath, with the unanimous consent of the Senate, the bill was amended by striking out from the word 'Maryland,' first line, first section, to the end of the bill, and the following inserted in lieu thereof, 'that if any person party to any bill, petition, or other proceeding, now or hereafter depending in the court of chancery, any county court as a court of equity, shall be absent from the State of