

The committee under these impressions beg leave to report and recommend the following bill:

A bill entitled, an act supplementary to the act entitled, an act to establish a house of refuge for Juvenile Delinquents; which was read the first time.

Mr. Mayer, from the committee to which the leave had been referred, reported a bill, entitled, an act relating to appeals and writs of error on Judgments of the county courts; which was read the first time.

On motion of Mr. Page, the preamble and resolutions, relative to the re-chartering the United States Bank, were taken up for consideration and amended, as follows:

After the figures, "1836." in the third line of the preamble, strike out the word, "unless," and insert the following words: "and that institution in which the interest of society are extensively and deeply involved, will then cease to exist unless its charter be;" the resolutions were then read the second time by special order, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mayer, the bill entitled, an act to extend the time for taking the bond of the sheriff of Calvert county, which passed the senate yesterday, was reconsidered, and on the further motion of Mr. Mayer, recommitted to the committee on judicial proceedings.

Mr. Mayer from the said committee reported that the committee had again considered the bill entitled, an act to extend the time for taking the bond of the sheriff of Calvert county, and were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendment, which was read and assented to:

After the word "Maryland" in the enacting clause, strike out the remainder of the bill and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"That the orphans court of Calvert county, or any two judges thereof, be and they are hereby authorised to take and approve in manner as is now directed by law, the bond with securities of Henry L. Harrison as sheriff of said county, at any time when presented to said court or judges, before the first day of March next, and the said bond with securities when so taken and approved of, shall have the same effect, force and operation to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been so taken and approved of within the time limited by law, any act to the contrary notwithstanding."

The bill was then read the second, and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Mayer, from the committee on judicial proceedings, to which was referred the bill entitled, a supplement to the
