

to mechanics the payment for labor done and materials furnished in the erection of buildings or machinery or either of them, within this state, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration, and were of opinion it ought not to pass.

It was read the second and by special order the third time rejected and returned to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the following message:

By the House of Delegates,
March 23rd, 1833.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message proposing to this house to reconsider and recede from an amendment to a bill relative to the election of the levy court of Queen Ann's county. We have according to your request reconsidered the amendment but cannot recede therefrom.

By order,

George G. Brewer, Clk.

And delivered a bill entitled, a further supplement to an act entitled, an act to repeal an act entitled, an act to create a board of public works, passed at December session 1825, chapter 166,

Which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Morris, Mayer and Dennis.

And returned the bill which originated in the senate, entitled, an act relating to the manner of holding and transmitting the title to certain church property, endorsed "Will pass with the proposed amendment."

Which amendment was read and adopted, and were as follows:

"And provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize the archbishop of Baltimore or his successors to exact from the members of any congregation, who may make conveyances under this act, any contributions as a consideration for the use of said church property so conveyed, without their consent."

The bill entitled, an act to repeal an act entitled, an act making appropriations for the benefit of the American Colonization Society, passed at December session 1826.
