

The clerk of the House of Delegates delivered the following message:

By the House of Delegates,
March 23, 1833.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received the message from your honorable body informing us that you have stricken out the second section of the negro bill, and expressing the wish that we would now accept the other amendments, which you have attached to it. We accede to them all except the 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th sections, which are embraced in another law.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, Cl'k.

The bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act relating to free negroes and slaves, passed December session 1831, chapter 323 was reconsidered, and the amendments receded from as proposed in the last message from the house of delegates.

The bill was then read and passed.

Mr. Claude submitted the following message,

Which was read and adopted, and with the bill sent to the house of delegates.

By the Senate,

March 23, 1833.

Gentleman of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message of this morning, informing us that you accede to all our amendments to the negro bill except the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th sections, all which you state are embraced in another bill.

We accept your proposition and pass the bill striking out the sections above referred to.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson Cl'k.

On motion of Mr. Emory the bill entitled, an act to repeal an act passed at December session 1829, entitled, an act to provide for the election of the levy court in Queen Ann's county by the people was reconsidered, the amendments proposed by the house of Delegates dis- sented from, and the further consideration of the bill in- definitely postponed.
