

4 JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS. [Dec. 30.]

Whereupon it was declared, that the Honorable Benjamin S. Forrest, is unanimously elected President of the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Sappington,

It was ordered; that the clerk communicate to the President elect, the fact of his election, and invite his attendance in the Senate Chamber.

On motion of Mr. Wootton,

The senators present adjourned until to morrow morning 10 o'clock.

---

TUESDAY, December 30th 1834.

Present the same senators as on yesterday.

Mr. Osborne appeared in the senate chamber and took his seat.

The clerk informed the senators present that he had, in conformity with the order passed yesterday, communicated to the President elect, the fact of his election and had been requested by him, to lay the following letter before them.

Which was read.