

It was read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Emory from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled an Act for the incorporation of St. Tammany Lodge, No. 25 of the order of independent Odd Fellows in Queen Anne's County, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Pigman from the committee to which was referred the resolutions relative to the Poor School Fund in Allegany County, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration and were of opinion it ought to be assented to with the following amendment, which was read and assented to.

After the word "County" in the third line of the resolution strike out the whole of the resolution and insert and "Levy Helleary, Michael C. Sprigg, and Jonathan Butler, shall at the next meeting of said commissioners to make the county levy, make a complete and full statement and report of the state of the school fund from its first establishment to the time of making said statement and report, stating the amount received from the State in each year, the loans made in each year, and to whom made, the amount of interest paid for such loans in each year, the sums deposited in various banks or vested in stocks at different times, the dividends received on such deposits or stocks, each year together, with the sums deposited in each year, and to whom paid in each year, since the establishment of said fund, and the amount received in the hands of said commissioners or their treasurer each year, and in their discretion to publish the same in some newspaper published in the Town of Cumberland.

The resolution was then read the second and by special order the third time, assented to and returned to the House of Delegates.

The resolutions relative to the abolishment of the Lottery System in the United States, were read the third time, assented to and sent to the House of Delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates, delivers the following message.