

by the day when the motion for dissolving such injunction shall be heard and the order providing also that notice of the granting such order be given as shall be prescribed by the court on part of the party applying for the order to the other parties named in the bill or their solicitors and such testimony at the hearing of such motion shall be considered in connexion with the bill or petition and answers in the cause.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, that the power of the court of chancery or of the county courts, as courts of equity to decree sales of infants' estates shall extend to all cases of trusts for infants either for the application of rents, profits or income, or in any other form for their benefit, and to all cases of chattels real, where, if the property were freehold, a sale might be decreed; and the power of said courts to decree leases of ground in the city of Baltimore, shall extend to all such cases of trusts of or concerning ground in said city.

Also, returned the bill which originated in the senate entitled, a further supplement to an act entitled, an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, chapter 110, endorsed, 'will not pass.'

Mr. Morris from the committee on finance, to which was referred the bill entitled, an act relating to the several schools, academies and colleges, receiving donations in this State, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration, and were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendment,

Which was read and assented to:

After the word 'neglect' in the second line of the second section, insert these words, 'after having been required so to do.'

The bill was then read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Pigman presented the memorial of Duff Green for certain modifications of the charter of the Union Company,

Which was read and referred to the committee on judicial proceedings.

Mr. Mayer submitted the following message,

Which was read and adopted, and with the bill to which it refers sent to the house of delegates.