

Item Everyone that is to speak to any matter shall stand up and be unarm'd and direct his speech to the Lieut General as President of the Assembly and if two or more stand up to speak together the Lieutenant Generall shall appoint which shall speak.

Item no man shall stand up to speak to any matter until the Party that spake last before have sit down nor shall any one speak above once to one Bill or matter at one Reading nor shall Profane the speech of any other with any unwill or Contentious terms nor shall name him but by some circumlocution and if any one offend to the contrary the Lieutenant Generall shall command him to Silence.

Item the House shall sit every day at eight of the Clock in the morning and at two of the Clock in the Afternoon

Item the Freeman assembled at any time to any Number above ten Persons at the House aforesaid or within one Hour after shall be a house to all Purposes

Item every one propounding any matter to the House shall digest it first into writing and deliver it to the Secretary to be read unto the House

And it was Ordered by the House that these Orders should be set up in some publick place of the house to the end all men might take notice of them

Acts of the second day being

26th January

Between the hours of eight and nine in the morning
Assembled