

By the Lieutenant Gen^l

Whereas at the last Session of Assembly the House was prorogued until the next Monday which shall be after Twelfth day Anno 1642 which prorogation is necessary for certain weighty reasons to anticipate these are to publish and proclaim that I have appointed a General Assembly to be called and held at Saint Marys on the 29th of this month being the morrow after the Feast of Saint Simon and Jude next and therefore I do hereby require all Gentlemen summoned by special writ and the burgeses of every hundred respectively and all others whom it may concern to take notice hereof and to repair to the said Assembly at the time and place prefixed at their Publick Govern^{mt} at Saint Marys this 18th October 1640.

7th November 1641 Leonard Calvert

The Secretary in the absence of the Lieut. Gen^l of the Province prorogued the day of Assembly until the 11th November following

11th November 1641

The Secretary in absence as aforesaid prorogued the day further until the 20th March follow^{ing}

By the Lieutenant General

Whereas the house of Assembly stands Prorogued unto the 20th March next at which time the pres^{ent} Laws now in force will for the greater part of them determine and expire therefore to publish to all persons whom it may concern that I have appointed
