

Then was read another protest of the same men, touching the departure of Inhabitants out of the Province without leave and the Lieu^t General consented that this should be entered for his answer instead of the former touching that point that he declared it to be the Common right of all inhabitants to depart out of the Province at their Pleasure unless inhibited otherwise to Justice

Then the Lieutenant General adjourned the house till the afternoon

13th September 1672

Assembled us upre

This amendment was proposed by the Lieu^t General on the Bill for Judges [nor that any Process be awarded against his Person nor the persons of his necessary mensial Servants in the cases aforesaid nor that any process be awardable against his Goods or Chattels until the party have delivered to the Judge the petition containing the right or damage in demand and the Judge have signified the said Petition to the Lieu^t Gen^l advising him to do such right or satisfy such damage as is demanded or shew cause why he refused to do so and the Lieu^t General have refused to do either and that after any process awarded in the Cause aforesaid if the Lieu^t General shall be ready &c] at Sequitⁿ in the Bill

Then were read the eleven first Bills viz^t

- 1 For support of the Government
- 2 For Judges