

1659.

77
as representing his Lordship a double or casting vote as has expressed it. The Secretary refused to enter into the lower house with the Governor upon that account it being a manifest breach of his Majesty's Right Royall Subjection and Signiority, and offered his reasons, and desired to have them entered upon Record in the lower hall of the lower house; but was denied it by the Governor.
Whereupon his Lordship and Mr Baker Brooke departed the house (after leave asked) and given in these words or to this effect forthwith you may if you please, we shall not force you to goe or stay, ordered by the Governor