

Sayler, Robert Stewart & Wm. Miller and John Rogers as Guardians to the Orphan of Newark And the house judged that it is best that need be in as much as the will of Wm. Elmer had is confirmed by the Act for Quodam person.
 Then came an Act from the lower house for the Repeal of the Act Entitled an Act for killing wild Cathe which was assented unto.
 Then came an Act from the lower house for burying Servants.

And the house adjourned
 And the house met againe Upon reading the Act prohibiting trading and gaming with Servants. The house ordered it to be endorsed on the back of the Act thus vizt - This Act is mistaken for this house never thought fit to allowe that power to any one person to fine or set in pillory. Doubt that it might be done by the Court or some County Court.

Ordered that John Gittings Clerk of this house migress all the Acts over so soon as possible he can.

The house adjourned till 9 of the Clock in the morning.
