July 29th 1791 The following Message Viz. By the Lower House of Assembly -
May it please your Honor.

We consider the Assize Law to have been found so Very Serviceable to the People we represent that We cannot Omitt proposing your Honours to Pass that Bill for revising it since it will be an Inexpedient Burthen to the People in remote Counties to attend the Provincial Court which must be very long by the Increase of Business while they can have an Opportunity to raise Money to Defray their Expenses at Annapolis which by the Scarcity of that Commodity at present in the Province is rendered very difficult, We have therefore sent you the Bill and Desire you'll please to pass it.
Signed of Order William Cunningham Esq. Speaker

Sent to the Upper House by Mr. Greenfield and Twelve more, They return and say they deliver the same.

Philmon Boyd Esq. from the Upper House delivered to Mr. Speaker the Bill to make and emit thirty Six thousand pounds Current Money of Maryland in bills of Credit and for easing the Inhabitants of this Province in the payment of Debts and to raise a fund to sink the said Bills of Credit thus Endorsed. By the Upper House of Assembly 23rd July 1791 Read the first time and ordered to lie on the Table

By the Upper House of Assembly 29th July 1791 Read the second time and well Signed of Order [Signature]
