

5. I have instead of the word Grain put Wheat Indian Corn or Other Grain and Flour in Bread
 6. I have instead of the word Other put all
 7. I have after the word any, added Indian Corn Wheat or Other Grain
 7. I have after the word Expectation, put, shall be Liable to the Penalty of the Law
 7. I have after the word Expectation, put, shall be Liable to the Penalty of the Law
 7. I have after the word Expectation, put, shall be Liable to the Penalty of the Law
 7. I have after the word Expectation, put, shall be Liable to the Penalty of the Law

John Ross 1814

Which Act with the Amendments proposed for Improving Good and the same being of the nature of a bill for the relief of the State of Pennsylvania to be read by the President of the Council and of the Assembly of Pennsylvania to be read by the President of the Council and of the Assembly of Pennsylvania to be read by the President of the Council and of the Assembly of Pennsylvania to

County for the District of the President - Council and - General Assembly To his King in Council - The position of the Council of the Province of Pennsylvania

That the Provinces of Pennsylvania and Maryland lying contiguous the Southern side of Maryland being the Southern side of Pennsylvania, the limits between them were agreed on with any exact certainty before the year 1762 yet except in some few instances on the East of Maryland the People of either Province in making their Settlements have ever since above a mile or two from the place which the said Lord Baltimore set to the same great extent of any misunderstanding between the Proprietors and Depts of the said two Provinces it was in the year 1764 agreed between the Proprietors of Pennsylvania Proprietors of Maryland and Hannah Penn Baron and Lieutenant of the said Province of Pennsylvania I received that for the avoiding of manner of contention or Differences between the Inhabitants of the said Provinces upon a person should be directed to collect their Disputes on either Side nor any Land be Surveyed taken up or granted in either of the said Provinces near the Boundary which has been found or pretended to on either Side which agreement tho it was to continue in force ever the only yet it was deemed to be Insuperable dependent on the passing the paper upon the Orders of the Two Provinces where they by which the said was fully observed by the Government of Pennsylvania by the Government of Maryland until about the year when the said Lord Baltimore and the Proprietors of Pennsylvania let the said settlement of the said Lord Baltimore, I have entered into a certain agreement for dividing the Province of Maryland from the Province of Pennsylvania and the said Lord Baltimore and I have which I have done in the Province of Pennsylvania