By order,

G. DUVALL, cl. ho. del.

ORDERED, That the nomination of judges for the high court of appeals be postponed, and that a message be prepared to the senate acquainting them therewith.

The following message being prepared, was sent to the senate, together with the list of civil officers, by Mr. Maxwell and Mr. Somervill.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, April 1, 1777.

May it please your honours,

WE send you herewith a list of officers, judges and magistrates, for your approbation and concurrence.

We have not as yet named the judges in the high court of appeals, the difficulty of finding proper persons to fill that important station, has induced this house to postpone the nomination; we shall hereafter resume that subject, and either send up a list for your approbation, or adopt some other mode that may on due consideration appear more eligible.

By order,

G. DUVALL, cl. ho. del.

Brice Thomas Beale Worthington, Esq; from the senate, delivers to Mr. Speaker a letter from colonel Francis Ware, signifying, that his ill state of health induced him to resign his commission, thus endorsed; "By the senate, April 1, 1777: Read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.

"By order,

R. RIDGELY, cl. sen."

Which was read, his resignation accepted by the house, and colonel John Hoskins Stone appointed to the command of the first regiment.
