E R R A T A.

At the beginning of page 77, read,

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that Messieurs Mombos and Latel, of Baltimore-town, had a quantity of wines consigned them in the year seventeen hundred and eighty-three, which were damaged, the duties whereof amounted to four hundred and seventy-seven pounds ten shillings, for which they bonded to the naval officer of Baltimore; that the actual sales of said wines were two hundred and seventy-nine pounds one shilling; that there was no law at that time to remedy such inconveniences; and it appearing reasonable to grant relief in the premises; Therefore RESOLVED, That the naval officer aforesaid be directed to remit and give up so much of the said bond as exceeds the sales aforesaid, and upon the said Mombos and Latel paying the balance, that the said bond be cancelled.

Sent to the senate by Mr. Ridgely of William.

In page 81, immediately after the resolve respecting the bills of credit emitted in May 1781, read,

RESOLVED, That where any possessor of the said bills of credit hath brought them into the treasury, and taken a receipt therefor with an interest of 6 per cent. agreeably to the law of May seventeen hundred and eighty-one, that such person, or bearer, may bring in such receipt to the treasury of the western shore, at any time before the twenty-fifth day of June next, and receive the principal and interest due on such receipts.

In page 81, after the word "citizens" in the 59th line, read,

WHEREAS it appears to this general assembly, That Job Garretson, of Baltimore county, in the year seventeen hundred and eighty-one, bought of the state seven hundred and fifty acres of land, part of the property of the late Principio company, at six pounds fifteen shillings per acre, for which the said Garretson bonded as the law directs; that by actual measurement the same only contains six hundred and sixty-one acres, which leaves eighty-nine acres short, as appears by the certificate of the surveyor appointed by the commissioners of confiscated British property; that the said Garretson bought all the property on the land called Buck-range, or the Lancaster furnace, except the negroes, live stock, and household furniture; that there were three hundred load of coal, and three hundred and thirty-two ton of ore, taken away by order of the commissioners aforesaid, and that considerable damage was committed upon the furnace aforesaid, after the sale and before the delivery; RESOLVED, That the intendant of the revenue be required and directed to adjust and settle the same with the said Garretson, and in case of diversity of sentiment, that the same be referred to three disinterested persons, to be nominated by the said intendant and Garretson, who, upon hearing all the circumstances on oath, shall settle and adjust the same.
