

10. When a motion is made and seconded, the matter of the motion shall receive a determination by the question, or be postponed by general consent, or the previous question, before any other motion shall be received.

11. Every question shall be entered on the journal, and the yeas and nays may be called for by any member on any question, and the name of the member requiring them shall be entered on the journal.

12. The previous question, that is, Whether the question propounded be now put? may be called for by any member on any question, except to an amendment, or other matter, which cannot in its nature be postponed.

13. If a question in debate contains more parts than one, any member may (of right) have the same divided into as many questions as parts.

14. All questions shall be determined by the majority of the members present, and whenever the speaker (on a division if called for) shall declare any question in the affirmative or negative, such declaration shall decide the majority, unless the yeas and nays be called for, in which case the question shall be determined as the majority shall appear on the journal.

15. Every bill brought in by a member, or received from the senate, shall be read on two several days, with an intermission of one day at least, during which time it shall lie on the table for the perusal of the members, unless on very urgent occasions the house shall, by especial order, dispense with this rule, which order shall be entered on the journal.

16. Conferrees, and members appointed on draughts, if required by a member, shall be elected by ballot, and the number shall in no case exceed seven.

17. No bill or resolve shall have a second reading, until every member in the city be called upon to attend, except he be excused by the house for indisposition, or necessary attendance on the public business.

18. No petition, memorial, or other application to the house, shall be received, unless presented by a member.

19. On an election to any office of trust or profit, no ballot shall be counted, unless the person for whom the ballot shall be given be named to the house before the balloting be gone into.

20. All questions of order shall be declared by the speaker.

21. No motion shall be made after the hour of adjournment without leave of the house.

22. Before any person is named to any office or appointment to which any salary or allowance is to be annexed, the allowance or salary shall be first ascertained.

23. All misdemeanors which shall happen in the house, shall be censured or fined by the house.

24. If any member shall depart without leave of the house, or having leave of absence for a time shall not return agreeable thereto, he shall forfeit all his preceding allowance for his attendance during the session, and the committee of claims shall not make any allowance for the preceding attendance of such member, unless by special order of the house, on such member making reasonable excuse for such departure or neglect to return as aforesaid.

25. No member shall answer on the yeas and nays who did not divide on the question, and if any member divides on one side and on the yeas and nays answers on the other, it shall be so noted on the journal.

26. All fines imposed by the house shall be paid to the clerk, and applied as the house shall direct.

27. The substance of all petitions, memorials, or other applications to the house, shall be entered on the journal.

28. The clerk of the house shall, on the first day of every session, put into the hands of the speaker a correct list of every matter referred from the preceding session.

29. On motion or debate, any member may call for the reading any law, journal, record, or other public proceeding, which may relate to the subject matter.

30. No member shall take out of the house any bill or other paper belonging to the house without leave of the speaker, under the penalty of such fine as shall be imposed by the speaker, not exceeding forty shillings.

31. No member shall nominate more than one person on any committee.

On motion, ORDERED, That as soon as any engrossed bill be assented to by both houses, the paper bill be delivered by the clerk to the printer of the state.

On motion, ORDERED, That the clerk of the house deliver on every Monday to the printer of the state, a fair copy of the journal of the preceding week.

A petition from John Salisbury, of Dorchester county, setting forth, that he is totally blind from a wound he received in the war before the last, and praying relief in the premises; was preferred and read.

A petition from John Gardner and Zachariah Gardner, executors of John Gardner, of Calvert county, deceased, praying an act may pass empowering them to convey a tract of land heretofore sold by their father; was preferred and read.

The house adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

W E D N E S D A Y, November 16, 1785.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The